

Yes Karate can be practised by almost every one with no serious health problems. Someone can start Karate courses from as little as 4 years old up to any age he feels like! There is no age limit, there are Karateka older than 80 years old the still practicing!